

Art in Prison Competition

7 Deadly Sins

Pride, Greed, Lust, Envy, Gluttony, Sloth and Wrath. Everyone recognizes these features. Sometimes in oneself, sometimes in another. The painter Jeroen Bosch already created a painting about these Seven Capital Sins around 1480.

Be inspired and create, just like Jeroen Bosch an artwork that is inspired by the 7 Capital Sins. An artwork about Pride, Greed, Lust, Envy, Gluttony, Sloth or Wrath, or maybe even about all seven of them.

The grand prize is € 100,-. Besides, the most special works will be exhibited in the Jeroen Bosch House during the weekend of the Jeroen Bosch Parade, June 19, 20 and 21, followed by an exhibition tour by several different locations. Additionally a magazine will be made showing the selected artworks.

The size of the work should not exceed 30 x 40 cm. Drawings, paintings, collages and everything in between can be sent in (alas, no three-dimensional work). Detainees from the Netherlands, Ireland, Northern Ireland, Portugal, Poland and Greece are invited to participate in this competition.

Send your work before May 22, 2015 to: Seven Deadly Sins Competition
t.n.v. Changes&Chances
Gasthuisstraat 7B
5211 NP Den Bosch

Please include the filled out form with the details of the creator. In case the work has to be sent back, enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope. The winners will be notified early June.

For background information see: www.changeschances.com
This competition is supported by: www.jeroenboschhuis.nl

Name participant:

Title of the work:

Explanation:

Work to be returned yes no

Contact person:

Phone/ address

Name participant:

Title of the work:

Explanation:

Work to be returned yes no

Contact person:

Phone/ address